PALATIAL GAMING HOUSE IN NEW YORK, -The most palatial of the gaming houses in New York is located on Twenty-fifth steeet. The main parlor is a large room, artistically frescoed and elaborately furnished, and carpeted with a velvet medellion. Between the front windows is a long French mirror stretching from ceiling to floor, and on its sides hang heavy blue satin curtains over white lace. Mirrors are hung over the two mantle pieces. which are of solid black walnut hung with blue and gold, and a mirror is inlaid in the back of every door in the entire house. In the centre of the room is a long black walnut table, where every night at 11 o'clock supper is servedsuppers that cannot be bought-suppers that would delight the palate of Epicurus. Two colored servants noiselessly move about with silver trays, and it is a rule of the house that they never accept a fee, the wages they receive being sufficient compensation for their services. The great sideboards, loaded with fruits and wines, stand in the room close to the wall .-Any one is free to call for liquors and cigars, and to offer money in payment is an insult .-The walls are frescoed in blue and gold, and all the furniture corresponds. Adjoining is a large circular room, with an umbrella ceiling, surmounted by a cupola. The wails and ceiling are painted in dark green and gold," the carpet is of green velvet with gold figures, the furniture is of black walnut with green reps, and a gorgeous chandelier is suspended with gold chains from above. A cosy soft coal fire throws a glare of scarlet light upon the rich carpet, and the mantle is ornamented with a large mirror and handsome bronze clock. At the head of the room is a long table, around which are always scated a number of men engaged in the game of faro. $500,000 is the reputed strength of the bank. Bankers, merchants, lawyers, artists, generals and young men about town, are frequenters of this palace of the gamesters. Even reputed "pious" men have been known to gamble there, and a once prominent general of the Union army is a constant visitor and determined gambler. EMILE OLLIVIER, the new French prime minister, and the first one who, under the empire, has been more than the Emperor's instrument, is now in his forty-filth year. His fame as an orator and a politician has been gained in the service of the people, contending against arbitrary rule and personal government. Taking his seat in the legislative assembly in 1857, he took a prominent place among the liberal leaders, and maintained it, with splendid ability, when those who sympathized with his democratic doctrines were few. But as the opposition grew strong and firm, his zeal was thought to become cool, and for some years past he has been regarded by the "rebs" as a friend of the Emperor. In fact, his aim has been consistently to reform the empire, not to overthrow it, and he has steadily insisted that out of the personal government of Napoleon, by the wise statesmanship of liberal men, a constitutional government may and ought to grow, which will be better for France and more permanent ment .- Lynchburg Virginian. PRIZE FIGHT, -The sporting fraternity will rejoice to learn that all the preliminaries have been arranged for a prize fight between Jem Mace, ex Champion of England, and Tom Allen, another English fighter, who has already distinguished himself in this country by thrashing Mike McCool and other American bruisers of less note. That both men are in carnest cannot be doubted, as $500 aside forfeit were deposited in the hands of a stakeholder at Florence's saloon, New York, on Sunday night! !

SUNKEN LAKE, in the Cascade Mountains, is one of the greatest curiosities in Oregon. It is ten by twenty miles, and seems like a gigantie well scooped out in the heart of the mountains. The walls are nearly perpendicular, avcrage two thousand feet in height, and run sheer into the water, leaving no beach at all .-The lake is never ruffled by the wind, and its depth is unknown, as thus far no person has been upon its surface.

BRIGHTEN UP !- This is a good resolve with which to begin the New Year.

Nothing lightens labor like cheerfulness, and nothing makes the wheels of toil drag so heavily as a sullen or unwilling spirit!

Smyrna, N. Y., contributes $4 to the conscience fund of the Treasury. The sender is a Mr. Dixon, who states that one of the farmers in his neighborhood some four years ago failed to make return in his income of a firkin of butter, and that he now sends the above mentioued sum to make his omission good. Fulton, N. Y., is also in the market for honesty. An anonymous writer of that ilk transmits $2, to be placed to the credit of his conscience, because he "loves the Lord."

Farmers remember the famous corn which some years ago became so popular under the name of its originator, Mr. Baden, of Prince George's county, Md. It was extraordinarily profine, dearing four, ave and six ears to a state.

This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety.—Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. DISEASES OF IMPRODUCE.

When the misguided and impredent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbited the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shaine or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, we refer to the ducation and respectability, can alon befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horfid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, necturnal pains in the head and limbs. dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the cone of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awfu disease becomes a horrid object of commissora-tion, till death puts a period to his dreadful suf-ferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns." It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thou
